The Community Band of the Palouse has been entertaining locals and giving citizens of all ages the opportunity to play their favorite instrument since 1974. This year marks the band's 40th anniversary, and the band is still growing and creating music for the Palouse.

The band is celebrating with a concert at 1 p.m. June 21 at Reaney Park in Pullman, where it will be joined by the Lewis-Clark Community Band from Lewiston. Admission is free.
